

Reception Newsletter

March 2016

We hope you all had a lovely half term and all the children are reinvigorated and ready for the next half term. This term, our topic is Animal Park Make Over so please look at our curriculum map in order to get some ideas of how you can support your child at home.

Showtime !

Don't forget that this half term the reception children will be performing their show—The Musicians of Bremen- to parents and carers. Further information will follow regarding booking tickets for the performance .

ZOOLAB

We will be having some strange and wonderful creatures visiting Reception on the morning of March 23rd.

We will be asking lots of questions to find out about the unusual animals.

Animal Park Make Over

This half term we becoming experts in Animal Park design for our Mantle of the Expert topic. The Safari Park have asked us to design some new enclosures for the wild animals. We will be finding out about what the animals need to create a happy environment for them to live in.

It is extremely important that your child is reading at least 3 times a week as we continue to develop their reading skills.

As an incentive, if your child reads regularly at least 3 times a week then they will be entered into a raffle and given the chance to win a book!

Dates for your diary

Wednesday 16th March and Thursday 17th March—Performance
Wednesday 23rd March—ZooLab

How can I support my child at home?

We will be working really hard on developing your child's writing skills this half term. Whenever possible let your child help you write a shopping list. Can they sound out the words and match the letter? Now that spring is on its way maybe they could chalk in the garden. Remember to celebrate their successes by letting us know.
