What's going on this week?

It was announced earlier in the year that the well-known toy shop chain Toys R Us was to go into administration, with 100 UK stores being closed down. Last week, the US head office of the chain closed its doors for the final time. With fans of Toys R Us expressing their sadness after it announced "everything must go" from its US headquarters - including a life-sized statue of mascot Geoffrey the Giraffe.

Things to talk about at home...

- 🍏 Do you like going to toy shops? With modern technology, do you think there is still a place for toy shops?
- 🍏 Does anyone you live with remember Toys R Us? Why do you think it has needed to close in modern times?
- 🍏 Do you think toy shops in the past were more popular or less popular than toy shops today, why?
